NEW SERIES STARTS TODAY!!!

Haldane's INCREDIBLE AMAZING WORLD

Bizarre

In 1817, Queen Victoria walked through Kensington with a paper bag on her head. Amazingly, nobody recognized her. They all thought she was Princess Kensington with a paper bag on her head.

In 1982, Oliver Logsdon of Nashville discovered that a fish finger he was eating was singing "Roxie" to him. He then discovered that fish can sing.

Every 100 years, a bird makes a sound like a bird, and it's called a bird. It's the only sound any bird makes. It's the only sound any bird makes.

This man is dangerous. If you see him, please call the police immediately. Do not attempt to play tennis with him.

WITH UNCLE PORK'S SUPER-ACCURATE TEST

[I.Q. = INTELLIGENCE QUOSHEN QWOTAINT QWQOSHENT RATING]

- 1. An adventurer is on the edge of a 500ft. cliff. Advancing on him at a rate of 2m. per second is a pack of rabid wolves (average weight 30wt) - Above him, descending with a momentum of 123 km/s, is a man-eating buzzard. What does the adventurer do?
- 4. A postman delivers 3 letters to no. 58, 4 letters to no. 75 and 9 letters to no. 51. But he delivers no letters to no. 53. Why?

- 2. What is this?

- 3. If John has blue eyes, his brother Sam has green eyes, second cousin Julie has grey-green eyes, what does Julie's brother Ernestine have?
- 5. 3 men are digging a hole. It takes them an hour to dig 6 feet deep. A fourth man is by the side of the hole, but they could dig no faster even if they asked him to help. Why?

ANSWERS:

1. Die.
2. A corrugated slug
3. A stupid name
4. No. 53 is the HQ of the Dave Lee Travis fan club
5. The fourth man is dead, and the other 3 are burying him

HOW DID YOU SCORE?

Score 330/98 for each correct answer, divide by your age, subtract the number of minutes it took you to do the quiz. If you can do that without moving your lips, your IQ is probably high enough for you to realise that this quiz is a con.
